OFFICE OF TRAINING

NOTICE
NO. 30-56

25 September 1956

SUBJECT: Training Films on Clandestine Communications

1. The Office of Training is now producing a series of training films to support formal instruction in all aspects of clandestine communications. The series will include individual films covering the following general subjects:

25X1A

2. The above will be shown only to students enrolled in those OTR Training Courses in which the subject matter of the films is covered. However, special showing may be arranged for individuals who have attended these or similar courses in the past and have a continuing need-to-know relative to the subject matter.

3. Any exception to the above policy must be approved by the Director of Training.
